Family Covenant and Disclosure Concerning Religion

As the PARENT(S), I (we) recognize the value in committing my (our) time and talents to a dedicated community of homeschoolers. I (We) agree to the following:

1. I (We) understand that I (we) am (are) fully responsible for my (our) child's education and that the St. Benedict Classical School exists to enhance that education.
2. I (We) understand that each semester's tuition for St. Benedict Classical School is due before the beginning of the semester, whether my (our) child wishes the program or not.
3. I (We) understand that I (we) am (are) the primary teacher(s) of my (our) child. I (We) will ensure that my (our) child completes any work given by the tutor to the best of his or her abilities.

St. Benedict Classical School is open to students of all religions, faiths or races. While we respect and honor every student's background or opinions, our school, its lessons and philosophy, are rooted in Orthodox Christianity. Though we are not a school of religious catechism, our studies are built around readings of the Bible, Church History, and Christian classics. We begin and end each day with prayer, scripture, hymns and readings of the lives of saints.

1. I (We) fully understand and respect this religious position of St. Benedict Classical School.

Policy Regarding Behavior and Discipline

We are raising children to become respectful and upstanding adults, dedicated to biblical ethics, and with healthy self-esteem and respect. Students are expected to maintain a high standard of behavior, acting with nobility and integrity.

- Always be polite and respectful of instructors and students.
- Respond to teachers with polite language, such as: “yes sir”, “yes mam”, “please”, and “thank you”
- Hitting, roughness, or rowdiness is never acceptable
- No running in the parish
- Always cleanup and keep school environment free from litter
- Observe uniform code of the school

Students who are misbehaving will be given a verbal warning once, and if they continue to misbehave they will have to sit in the corner. If misbehavior continues, we will ask parents to pick them up. In severe cases of continued misbehavior, students may have to be suspended or expelled depending on the nature of the misbehavior. We are grateful for to our students’ parents for respecting these standards and aspiring together to raise our children to become servants of Jesus Christ.

I (We) fully understand and respect this policy and all the standards therein.
